Suggestion or proposal:

Best wishes to the journal for publication of quality articles in the field of Cardiology. I would like to suggest that editorial board members should be more involved in writing editorials or commentaries on a-head-of-print articles based on their expertise, with waived publication charge. In general, this increases the clinical value of such articles, as well as the scientific impact of the Journal.

Further effort should also be made towards greater security in the editorial access online system. In my opinion, more stringent specialty criteria should be pursued when choosing an EB member for handing a new manuscript.
