

Dear Abhishek,

I would like to continue as an editorial board member. Please send articles for review. I was away because of some family and work related issues. Now i am back and available for my service for JSCRT.

could you give me some idea about the what kind of regulation we are talking about here. Once I hear from you, i would be happy to provide you some suggestion.

Thanks,
DJN

On Mon, Oct 19, 2015 at 4:59 AM, Journal of Stem Cell Research and Therapy
<editor.jsCRT@omicsinc.com> wrote:

Dear Dr. Dhananjaya Nayak,

Greetings from Journal of Stem Cell Research and Therapy!!

Hope our e-mail finds you in a healthy mood.

Thank you for your wonderful support and time for the development and success of the journal.

We are very glad that the journal has completed five years with 5 volumes. This was possible only because of your invaluable support.

We hope your contribution towards the journal would continue in the near future.

On this occasion the Editorial Office is planning to implement new strategies and regulations to increase the quality of the articles and the number of articles towards the journal.

We would be very grateful if you could provide your kind suggestions in drafting the new regulations of the journal.

Secondly we would like to know whether you want to continue with our Editorial Board Member. Kindly provide us your consent for the same.

Look forward to hear positively from you.

With kind regards,

Abhishek

Editorial Assistant

Journal of Stem Cell Research and Therapy

Medical Journals

731 Gull Ave, Foster City

CA 94404, USA

E-mail: editor.jsCRT@omicsinc.com

--

---

Dhananjaya (DJ) Nayak, Ph.D.

Medical Univ. of South Carolina
Biochemistry & Mol. Biology, MSC-509
173 Ashley Ave, Rm # 522
Charleston, SC-29425