Dear Sandy M Deep
Journal Manager
Journal of Developing Drugs,

I had received your kind message and nice appreciations for which I thank you.

I have interest for new, research, discovery in the field of medicine.
You don't know how low is my salary here in my country in contrast with my current professional position.
For this reason I can't support the costs of the publication fees of the articles.
This is my real problem not because I don't have interest.

Regarding the decision to be in the Editorial Board Member of the Journal of developing drugs - how you consider .

Sincerely,
Best Regards,
dr. Manuela Stoicescu
