Dear Marynes Montiel

Greetings from Journal of Fisheries and Aquaculture!!!

I am writing this email based on your expertise in Fisheries and Aquaculture.

Fisheries and Aquaculture is one of the leading international publishers for Open Access journals devoted to various disciplines in science and technology.

We are inviting you to be as Editor in Chief for our journal.

Should you be interested in accepting this invitation, then please send me your Biography, Research interest and recent photograph by email to editor.faj@omicsinc.com

You will receive full waive on the publication charges of your article as you are serving as editors for editorial board for these many successful years of OMICS.

Consider this as a friendly nudge.

With Kind Regards,

Balaji Daram
