

Dear Editor,

my interest in the journal is clear and demonstrated my continuous contribution in terms of published articles and activities as reviewer and editor, therefore filling a form is probably more convenient for "silent" editorial board members. My only suggestion that certainly will appear to you merely obvious is to continue to aim as primary target to be recognised by PubMed.

Best regards,

Prof Giangaspero