

Dear Mr. Kotturi,

Thank you for your message and reminder!

I am honoured to be part of the Editorial Board and, of course, I accept your kind invitation to remain part of honourable Editorial Board.

In fact, our Department is preparing an interesting paper about the ocular implications in a case of POEMS syndrome, article which maybe will be accepted for publication in the Journal of Thyroid disorders and therapy.

Unfortunately, I am leading an Ophthalmology Department, fewer cases presenting an associated endocrine / thyroid pathology.

However, please be sure that once we have an interesting research material, we will send it to your attention for publication.

Kind regards,

Prof. Mihnea MUNTEANU, MD PhD
