Dear Jason Oliver,
I would be extremely happy to serve on the editorial board of Pharmaceutical Analytical Chemistry: Open Access. I would contribute to the best of my capacity for the journal.
Also, I would like to review papers for the journal.

Best,
Sunil

Subject: Request to serve as reviewer

Dear editor,

I'm a post-doctoral researcher at National Center for Toxicological Research, US FDA, Arkansas. I have worked on fuel cell and supercapacitor applications of doped carbon materials, and have published 12 articles so far in peer reviewed journals including RSC Advances, Journal of Power Sources and Electrochimica Acta.

Also, I'm serving as a reviewer for several journals including Carbon and Journal of Materials Chemistry A.

I'm impressed with the aims and scope of "Pharmaceutical Analytical Chemistry" and would like to contribute to it. I would therefore feel privileged to serve as a reviewer for this journal. My areas of expertise are Materials Chemistry, Nanotechnology, Chemistry, Fuel Cells and Supercapacitors. Attached please find my Curriculum Vitae.

Please let me know if you have any papers to review.

Many thanks,
Sunil
